Let us help you and your horse build a stronger, more confident bond.

OUR INDUSTRY

Our team of expert horse trainers specialize in exceptional horsemanship rooted in our Mustang, Ranching, and Law Enforcement expertise, applying diverse knowledge to each horse. We teach horses to adapt to a dynamic herd and follow the rider's lead, fostering trust by ensuring requests are always reasonable and never cause discomfort.

OUR TRAINERS

The Next Step, founded by Kimba and Kevin MacRitchie, stems from Kimba's passion for horses and helping them and their riders reach their potential. Kevin, and their fully trained children, now carry on her legacy, offering quality horse training for all ages and skill levels.

OUR SERVICES

Confidence Building for Horses

We provide training that builds confidence through repetition and positive experiences, tailoring sessions to each horse's needs for calmness and growth.

Tailored Training with Real-World Exposure

Each horse receives tailored training in individual and group settings, building trust and confidence. We instill a "herd mentality," teaching horses to follow their rider, assured they won't be pushed beyond their comfort zone.

Diverse Experience, Proven Results

With experience in law enforcement training, livestock herding, and extreme trail riding, we handle challenges like water crossings and tough obstacles. Our 14- to 120-day programs build your horse's confidence to respond reliably.
